September 15, 2012

New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct
61 Broadway, Suite 1200
New York, NY 10006

Please consider this document to be: THREE (3) Complaints against a judge of the State of New York regarding her acts and qualifications.

1. Judge: Bonnie G. Wittner
2. Court: New York Supreme Court - Criminal Term
3. County: New York
4. Incident Date: 02-15-2012
5. Incident Time: UNKNOWN
6. Incident Location: Part 61 - Indictment #00423-2012
7. Complaint:

These THREE (3) complaints are being filed against Judge Bonnie G. Wittner because her honor:

- [1] set excessive, arbitrary and unreasonable bail
- [2] failed to disqualify herself knowingly (22 NYCRR § 100.0(F)) privy to ex parte facts in which impartiality is questionable
- [3] showed prejudice and bias in judicial duties

[1] During my Supreme Court arraignment (People v. Royce Corley) bail hearing the People offered arguments pertaining to CPL § 510.30(2)(a)(ii), (v), (vi) and (vii). However failed to address any specific arguments to suggest defendant being a "flight risk."

The defense in conjunction with the Criminal Justice Agency (CJA) Interview Report established CPL § 510.30(2)(a)(i),(ii),(iii), (iv) [lack thereof] and (viii) in favor of the defendant.

Her honor exercised sound judgment in acknowledging bail set by local criminal court (see complaint #2012/N-0690) as excessive and thus vacating the order pursuant to CPL § 530.30(1)(c). However despite having all aspects of CPL § 510.30(2)(a) in which to properly set bail; her honor set bail exclusively based on the offense charged and a pre-determined amount according to prior bail hearing experience.

In substance her honor stated "for D felonies I usually set $25,000 cash and $50,000 bond for bail." This method of setting bail is not governed by any New York State or Federal statutes and is therefore illegal. Whilst failing to acknowledge the individual or mitigating circumstances of the defendant and is completely unreasonable and arbitrary.

This improper judgment resulted in her honor violating:

- US Constitution Amendment VIII
- NY Constitution Article 1 § 5
- CPL § 510.30
- NY Code of Judicial Conduct Canon 3 (22 NYCRR § 100.3(B)(1))

COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT
COMPLAINT FORM

[2] Prior to the aforementioned Supreme Court arraignment (02-15-2012) her honor actively presided over Docket # 2011NY061129 (People v. Nathaniel Jackson); involving Indictment # 04157-2011 for Rape and Indictment # 00034-2012 for Witness Tampering, (PL § 130.35) and (PL § 215.11F) respectively.

The Prosecutor for the two above cases (People v. Nathaniel Jackson) and my case Docket # 2012NY007628 (People v. Royce Corley) during the time of my arraignment (02-15-2012) was Assistant District Attorney (ADA) David Stuart.

The victim of the Rape and Witness Tampering cases (Elaine White) is also the Prostitute Accomplice in my case as defined by CPL § 60.22 and conversely by PL § 230.35 for the charge of Promoting Prostitution (PL § 230.25)

With the ex parte knowledge of the detailed facts involving the victim of a violent rape it is questionable whether her honor is impartial to an individual accused of promoting the prostitution of said rape victim in a separate indictment. To avoid the appearance of impropriety her honor should have recused herself from presiding over my case (Indictment # 00423-2012).

This appearance of impropriety and lack of impartiality resulted in her honor violating:

- NY Code of Judicial Conduct
- Canon 2 (22 NYCRR § 100.2(A))
- Canon 3 (22 NYCRR § 100.3(E)(1)(a)(ii))

[3] During my bail hearing (02-15-2012) ADA David Stuart

This was done deliberately to invoke prejudice and create a correlation between my present case and that of the ex parte Rape case (People v. Nathaniel Jackson). Thus lacking any probative value to indicate "flight risk" as required by statute.

A factual review of _____ record would indicate meritful history in responding to court appearances pursuant to CPL § 510.30(2)(a)(vi) showing lack of "flight risk."

Given the facts mentioned above in complaints [1] and [2] it can be inferred through circumstance that her honor showed bias and prejudice in setting excessive bail to ensure I spent time incarcerated for promoting the prostitution of a rape victim.

This show of prejudice and bias resulted in her honor violating:

- Judicial Law § 14
- NY Code of Judicial Conduct
 - Canon 1 (22 NYCRR § 100.1)
 - Canon 2 (22 NYCRR § 100.2(B))
 - Canon 3 [prejudice] (22 NYCRR § 100.3(B)(4))
 - Canon 3 [ex parte] (22 NYCRR § 100.3(B)(6))
 - Canon 3 [disqualification] (22 NYCRR § 100.3(E)(1)(a)(i))

I respectfully seek three (3) separate complaint numbers (e.g. 2012/N-0000) corresponding to the above complaints for the sake of clarity.

To accurately evaluate the merits of the above complaints the Commission should seek copies of all stenographic minutes on and before 02-15-2012 for the following cases:

Dear Commission:

This is a formal request for a status update on the following complaints that have been filed with your agency:

- Complaint # 2012/N-0765 - Against Judge Bonnie G. Wittner
- Complaint # 2012/N-0690 - Against Judge Abraham L. Clott

In addition I would like for the Commission to investigate the involvement of the Honorable Judge Bonnie G. Wittner in the attached complaint against Senior Court Reporter Susan Pearce-Bates regarding the alteration of stenographic minutes. This is imperative to the current complaint against Bonnie G. Wittner as it relies on those minutes for accuracy.

It should be further noted that I was called as an alibi defense witness in the trial of People v. Nathaniel Jackson (Ind. # 04157-2011) on September 28, 2012. Therefore her honor was knowingly privy to ex parte information that was prejudice to me which would not be learned from actively participating in my case. However it remains uncertain at what time period she gained this knowledge. A review of the necessary transcripts will give further evidence of this.

At calendar call of People v. Royce Corley (Ind. # 00423-2012) on September 10, 2012 her honor unreasonably denied access to my supreme court arraignment minutes for February 15, 2012 despite mentioning it was for the purpose of filing a writ of habeas corpus. Attached is the receipt for the minutes in question after an unusual delay of over 6 months to obtain.

Please use these statements and the attached documentation to amend Complaint # 2012/N-0765 as necessary.

Sincerely,

Royce Corley

4. Incident Date: 12-12-2012
5. Incident Time: UNKNOWN
6. Incident Location: Part 61 - Indictment # 00423-2012
7. Complaint:

This complaint is being filed against Judge Bonnie G. Wittner because her honor made inappropriate comments showing prejudice and bias:

In response to the People mentioning that they intended to dismiss the case against me and hand over prosecution to the US Attorney's Office if I refuse to accept the maximum state sentence of 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ - 7 years; her honor stated in substance:

"Will they (US Attorney's Office) be able to use the testimony of the child from the [People v] Nathaniel Jackson case (Ind.# 04157-2011)? It should be public information now... right? When will they (The Feds) come pick him up?"

This shows her honor has an active interest in my prosecution in an outside jurisdiction and ultimately what evidence could be used to convict me of more serious charges.

These improper statements resulted in her honor violating:

- NY Code of Judicial Conduct Canon 1
- NY Code of Judicial Conduct Canon 3

Please consider this document to be a: Complaint against a judge of the State of New York regarding his acts and qualifications.

1. Judge: Abraham L. Clott
2. Court: New York County Criminal Court
3. City: New York
4. Incident Date: 01-26-2012
5. Incident Time: UNKNOWN
6. Incident Location: Arraignment Part - Docket # 2012NYC07628
7. Complaint:

This complaint is being filed against Judge Abraham L. Clott because his honor set an excessive bail as prohibited by:

- U.S. Constitution Amendment VIII
- N.Y.S. Constitution Article 1 § 5 (Bail)

Thus disregarding Criminal Procedure Law § 510.30(2)(a) which requires bail to be set solely for the purpose of securing my attendance at future court appearances.

The People offered no facts specifically to attribute me being a "flight risk". However it was mentioned that my income was approximately $50,000 through gainful employment, assumed to have $50,000 in illicit cash and believed to have substantial incriminating evidence.

The Defense in conjunction with the Criminal Justice Agency (CJA) report established lack of "Flight risk" by having steady employment, lengthy residence in the community, no previous convictions, sentence of no jail time available by statute for the offenses charged (Non-Violent D Felony), and the People's evidence is unfounded.

Given the factual arguments presented by both parties and lack of any extraordinary circumstances it is clear that bail set at $150,000 cash, $200,000 bond was excessive and punitive in nature to ensure I spent time incarcerated. This is a violation of Canon 3 of the N.Y.S. Code of Judicial Conduct. By not setting bail solely for the purpose of securing my court attendance--as required by statute--the Judge showed lack of professional competence in the law (22 NYCRR § 100.3(B)(1)) and prejudice (22 NYCRR § 100.3(B)(4)).

Dear Mr. Corley:

The State Commission on Judicial Conduct has reviewed your letter of complaint dated August 15, 2012. The Commission has asked me to advise you that it has dismissed the complaint.

Upon careful consideration, the Commission concluded that there was insufficient indication of judicial misconduct to justify judicial discipline. The Commission is not a court of law and does not have appellate authority to review the merits of matters within a judge's discretion, such as the bail decision in a particular case. Judges by law have broad discretion in such matters, and the law precludes the Commission from interfering in that discretion.

Very truly yours,

Dear Commission:

I am very disappointed to learn that the Commission declined to investigate my complaint due to "insufficient misconduct"; which I find to be a ridiculous assertion because it gives the impression that "a little misconduct" is okay or not worth the commissions time.

I agree that judges have a significant amount of discretion in setting bail. I strongly believe that justices should exercise that discretion to the benefit of the defendant where there is insignificant reason to confine such a person.

The nature of my complaint was not as to whether Judge Abraham L. Clott utilized his discretion, but a matter of him abusing his discretion. Due to this judges discretion I remain incarcerated after almost a year of his exercise of judgment. I feel my denial of liberty should at least afford me an investigation into Judge Abraham Clott's practices and qualifications.

"Upon careful consideration" it appears the Commission (being unpaid) chose to reject my complaint due to lack of sensationalism. I would like to pose a question: if my bail was set at $1,000,000,000 (1 billion dollars), or 1 million dollars would this then be discretion or misconduct? Is there a threshold at which discretion becomes misconduct in this matter?

Please inform me of why an allegation of an abuse of discretion is not worthy of investigation, and why must "Judicial Discipline" be the sole justification of inaction on the commissions behalf?

Sincerely,

Royce Corley

C O N F I D E N T I A L

Dear Sherryll Spatz:

Please consider this document to be a: Complaint against a court reporter (stenographer) of the State of New York regarding her acts and qualifications.

1. Stenographer: Susan Pearce-Bates
2. Title: Senior Court Reporter
3. Court: New York Supreme Court - Criminal Term
4. County: New York
5. Court Proceeding: People v. Royce L. Corley (Ind. # 00423-2012)
6. Court Date: 02-15-2012
7. Court Judge: Bonnie G. Wittner
8. Court Part: 61
9. Court Minutes Received: 10-15-2012

This complaint is being filed against Senior Court Reporter Susan Pearce-Bates because she:

[1] Took an excessive amount of time to transcribe the minutes for the court proceeding listed above. A request for minutes was sent to the Supreme Court Chief Clerk in mid-April. In addition my father Richard Corley has actively tried to obtain the minutes from Ms. Bates from early May by calling and leaving messages with her office until he was finally able to obtain them five (5) months later.

[2] It is suspected that Ms. Bates conspired with Judge Bonnie G. Wittner to alter the minutes of the above proceeding. The reason would be to conceal the judges abuse of discretion in setting bail. I recall the judge stating "$25,000 is normally the bail I set for D felonies," however the last portion of the judges statements appear to be completely altered:

I am seeking a full investigation into these matters. I can be reached at the above address for additional information or questioning. Please acknowledge receipt of this complaint at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Royce Corley

Dear Mr. Corley:

This office is in receipt of your complaint correspondence regarding court reporter Susan Pearce-Bates.

Please be advised I have forwarded your complaint correspondence to Principal Court Reporter Frank Rizzo of the New York County Supreme Court - Criminal Term who will speak with court reporter Susan Pearce-Bates regarding your allegations.

With regard to your second allegation, if you believe there is a discrepancy with the Minutes of your case, you would have to file a motion with the courts to look into this.

Very truly yours,

Affidavit in support of 440 motion; filed upon the Supreme Court of the State of New York: By Ricardo Kimble Indictment number 3621/99

State of New York)
County of Orange) ss.:

Herbert L. Rogers being duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am the Co-defendant of Ricardo Kimble Ind. No. 3621/99.

Ricardo and I were arrested on January 10, 1999., and while he participated in a jury trial, I struck a plea bargain and received a sentence of 9 years to life.

At no time did I make an agreement with a prosecutor, a
Judge or anyone else that as a condition of my plea bargain
I would not testify for Ricardo.
Nevertheless, on more than one occasion Judge Bonnie Wittner repeatedly threatened this affiant with federal prosecution in the event I should testify for Mr. Kimble.

As a result of those threats and others regarding the vacature of my plea agreement I did not testify.

It is my firm belief that the outcome of Mr. Kimbles' trial would have been more favorable to him if the Jury had heard my testimony, particularly, but not limited to the facts that Mr. Kimble never saw any drugs, never saw any money, was not present when the drugs were purchased, never knew how much money I had in my possession, nor how much drugs I intended to purchase. I repeatedly tried to tell the court all of the above facts but the Judge made it clear that she would not accept my plea unless I stated the facts in a way that was acceptable to the court. In light of the forgoing I don't believe
Mr. Kimble received a fair trial.

Indicate the nature of your complaint. Be exact as to facts:

On Sunday December 2, 2012 Michael Barry from the firm Ports & Files, Inc. visited me at the George R. Vierno Center on Rikers Island. In this visit he indicated he was the private investigator my lawyer Glenn F. Hardy, Esq. hired for my pending criminal case in Manhattan Supreme Court.

During a privileged conversation with Mr. Barry he started by bragging about various cases he investigated that later became newsworthy. At the conclusion of his boasting I indicated to him very adamantly my aversion to my case being presented to the media given the nature of the allegations and my desire to seek reemployment with Con Edison and the companies policy regarding negative press. Mr. Barry indicated that everything I told him would be kept confidential. Upon the conclusion of this meeting I shared a lot of attorney-client privileged information with Mr. Barry.

On Monday December 3, 2012—the very next day—my father received contact from a reporter with the Daily News seeking information to include in their article. The reporter indicated that an "investigator" had given them my fathers information.

On Tuesday December 4, 2012 the Daily News published a misleading article, additionally the PIX 11 News aired a story regarding my case. Later in the week upon concluding Mr. Barry as the only source of the news leak, I confronted him about his iniquities in a voicemail message.

On Wednesday December 12, 2012 I was informed by my lawyer Mr. Hardy that: Mr. Barry denies contacting the media and refuses to work for me any longer and will not provide any details on the information he worked to obtain for my case.

Have you gone to No [] a lawyer? No [] court or another agency?

What action are you seeking from the Department of State?

I seek for the Department of State to investigate my allegations and that of others similarly situated then reprimand and fine Ports & Files, Inc. and its employee Michael Barry and others involved for their untrustworthy and illegal business practices.

Complaint:

On January 26, 2012 Mr. Glenn F. Hardy, Esq. was assigned by the New York Criminal Court to represent me via the 18-B assigned Counsel Plan.

Throughout the latter portion of Mr. Hardy representing me he began to grow bitter. Due to my expression of his ineffectiveness for not adequately investigating the allegations against me or my potential defenses. The initial investigator which was hired failed to do any work.

Approaching a year of my incarceration and the prosecutor consistently delaying trial, I insist that he hire a new investigator in preparation for trial. Spitefully he hires an "investigator" however their intentions have nothing to do with assisting me for trial.

On Sunday December 2, 2012 Michael Barry from the firm Ports & Files, Inc. visits me on Rikers Island indicating Mr. Hardy hired him to assist me. During this meeting the investigator indicates some of the cases he worked on became newsworthy. I indicate to Mr. Barry my aversion to having my case in the media. Mr. Barry insists our conversations are confidential and only Mr. Hardy would know what we are talking about under attorney-client privilege. Upon concluding this meeting a lot of confidential details were shared with Mr. Barry.

On Monday December 3, 2012 the next day my father received contact from a reporter with the Daily News seeking information to include in a pending article about my case. The reporter indicates that an "investigator" been their source.

On Tuesday December 4, 2012 the Daily News and PIX 11 News release stories regarding my case to the public. Later in the week I voice my concerns about Mr. Barry's inquiries on the investigators voicemail. Without my permission Mr. Hardy makes several statements to the media which are aired on the PIX 11 Evening News this same day.

It is later learned from a subsequent news special that Mr. Hardy is back on the news discussing another case similar to mine about a client he is representing. Given these facts it is believed that Mr. Hardy is deliberately using and abusing his attorney-client privileges with the assistance of the "investigator" in order to promote his firm.

At no point in which Mr. Hardy has represented me did I express a willingness to have my case presented to the media. Without the assistance of Mr. Barry it is doubtful the media would have ever published or released details of my case on their own.

UNSIGNED COMPLAINTS WILL NOT BE PROCESSED.

Re: File No. N-1902-14

Dear Mr. Corley:

This will acknowledge receipt of your complaint dated August 29, 2014 regarding a Nassau County attorney.

Please be advised that the function of this Committee is to investigate and prosecute acts of professional misconduct committed by attorneys. When a complaint is received, we review it to determine if it involves behavior which could constitute professional misconduct by the attorney. An attorney may be found guilty of professional misconduct if it can be proven that an ethical rule or law was violated. If there is a sufficient basis to conduct an investigation, the Committee will do so. Otherwise, no action will be taken. After reviewing your complaint, it has been determined that it does not state a complaint of professional misconduct. Our informational booklet is enclosed for your convenience.

If it is your feeling that your legal rights need protection, we recommend that you consult with an attorney of your own choosing. The Committee is not permitted to give you legal advice or act as your attorney.

Although we appreciate your efforts, we are unable to assist you.

Grievance Appeal

Dear Chief Counsel:

This is a formal appeal of Assistant Counsel Elizabeth A. Grabowski's denial to investigate the professional misconduct of Mr. Glenn F. Hardy, Esq.

I believe my original complaint clearly states professional and ethical misconduct committed by this attorney. I find it inconceivable that an attorney can deliberately "sell" stories to the media against their client's interests in order to increase the exposure of their law firm or practice, and not be found at fault for their actions. I understand very well from my experience with the New York State Judicial Conduct Committee that "birds of a feather flock together," and that there is unlikely to be any action from such committees unless there was egregious or outrageous behavior; however I believe at a minimum this committee should be compelled to investigate my allegations and question Mr. Hardy under oath whether this is a regular business practice of his.

There is sufficient circumstantial evidence to warrant an investigation of these business practices. As previously stated Mr. Hardy has spoken to the media on two separate occasions to my knowledge under identical circumstances. The misconduct comes from the use of an "investigator" knowing their intentions are not to investigate but to sell media stories. Then consequently staging media conferences for the unjust exposure of his law practice. Please investigate these matters.

Sincerely,

Royce Corley

RE: Hardy-Corley
File #: N-1902-14

Dear Sir/Madam:

The following is a brief case history:

On January 26, 2012, I was "Assigned Counsel Arraignment Attorney" and was assigned by the Honorable Abraham Clott of the New York City Criminal Court to represent Mr. Corley on his criminal matter.

On February 15, 2012, Mr. Corley was arraigned his indictment, 423/12. He was charged with two counts of Promoting Prostitution as "D" felonies. At the arraignment, I was able to convince Judge Bonnie Wittner to reduce the bail from $200,000.00 cash/$150,000.00 bond to $50,000.00 cash/$25,000.00 bond. The matter was then adjourned for motions. An Omnibus Motion was thereafter filed.

After meeting with Mr. Corley, at the jail on February 9, March 14, and March 29 and after reviewing additional discovery, it was agreed that an investigator be utilized. An exparte motion for an investigator was granted, and Regent Investigations, an approved "18B" investigator, whom I used in the past, was hired.

At the same time, I was able to negotiate a plea bargain that would involve the minimum sentence of 1-3 years incarceration upon a plea of guilty. Mr. Corley was not interested in that disposition.

On April 10, the court issued a decision, and the matter was set for trial. Mr. Corley declined the above offer.

The matter was adjourned several times into the fall due to conflicting schedules between defense counsel, the District Attorney and the Court. However, the discovery

PIX11 NEWS EXCLUSIVE: Ex-Con Ed employee accused of pimping underage girls on company's computers

POSTED 5:09 PM, DECEMBER 3, 2012, BY JEREMY TANNER AND MARIO DIAZ, UPDATED AT 11:30AM, DECEMBER 26, 2012

ConEd employee accused of pimping underage girls using Police tracked the IP address used to post backpage.com ads advertising young girls to the utility company's computers.

Days after Mayor Bloomberg labeled Con Edison as the best utility company in America, PIX 11 News has learned that one now former employee was allegedly using company computers to service a different clientele.

Royce Corley is expected to be in Manhattan Supreme Court on Tuesday after the NYPD earlier this year pulled the plug on the former Con-Ed employee's alleged prostitution enterprise. Con Edison confirmed that Corley is a former employee of the utility.

According to the NYPD's Vice Enforcement Division as well as the District Attorney's office, Corley executed the operation by utilizing Con Ed computers to promote the prostitution of underage girls.

Royce Corley is accused of using ConEd computers to pimp girls

The indictment is short and to the point, yet it surrounds an elaborate operation that involved a crash pad on East 21st in Manhattan, an apartment unit on 128th Street in Harlem and the computers of Con Ed.

Corley, who was arrested nearly eleven months ago, is being charged with two counts of promoting prostitution in the third degree.

The alleged pimp was nailed by the NYPD for pushing the services of two 17-year-old girls out of a Gramercy apartment building on January 12th according to the indictment. A detective detailed a more elaborate operation in the criminal complaint, as a confiscated black book lists the names, hours, and money earned of various girls. The names of the two 17-year-olds arrested are in the book as well.

According to the list of property confiscated, the operation is filled with nearly 20 cell phones, numerous computers, a handful of thumb drives, ATM cards, and $1000 in cash.

Corley claims to be a systems engineer on his LinkedIn profile, as well as a director for a company named Qujix. PIX11 News examined the company and found that according to the Secretary of State website, it was dissolved on January 25th, which is the same day that Corley was arrested while on the job for Con Ed.

Corley, who is a father of one, was detained at an undisclosed location in Queens. Detectives allege that Corley placed the ads involving the two 17-year-old girls on backpage.com, however, the NYPD tracked the IP address used for the ads posted by the 27-year-old to Con Edison.

Corley's court appointed attorney Glenn Hardy says that his client is innocent, "These are baseless allegations against an innocent man and we will take the case to trial."

When asked if there has been any dialogue exchanged about a potential deal similar to Anna Gristina, the Upper East Side Madam, Hardy says, "He is not accepting any deals, no reason he should, he's innocent."

The crash pad on East 21st sits only twenty-five steps away from the front doors of PS 104, and the NYPD's 13th Precinct is just down the block. By all accounts it is a nice area of Gramercy, however residents at the building remember seeing strange faces coming in and out, "I remember seeing a lot of people and never seeing them again," says Jake Gallagher, who adds, "I found that interesting about the building, but I mean, I guess yeah there were a fair amount of girls that I saw within the building."

Corley's hearing on Tuesday is focused on a bail application and a calendar call to pick a trial date.

Coincidentally the promotion of prostitution in the third degree is the same charge that Upper East Side madam Anna Gristina plead guilty to in September.

While Corley is facing two counts, including pushing for the rentals of underage girls, his bail of twenty-five thousand dollars is significantly lower than the 2-million dollars set for Gristina.

If convicted, Corley's attorney says his client faces a potential of seven years in prison.

Re: File No.: N-1902-14
Hardy-Corley

Dear Nassau Bar:

I received Mr. Hardy's response on October 14, 2014 regarding this matter. Mr. Hardy raises some additional issues but they are misleading for the following reasons:

1. The online PIX(11) article quotes the records belonging to the NYPD and Manhattan DA, but do not indicate them as their source.

2. Mr. Hardy omits a Daily News article written by Daniel Beekman and published on December 4, 2012 indicating their source as "an investigator." Daniel Beekman contacted my father on the evening of December 3rd seeking information. My father's private phone number is not on any public documents associated with my case. I gave my father's phone number to Mr. Barry to assist with investigating a particular lead.

3. This PIX(11) and Daily News articles mention "two 17-year-old girls," however the facts of the criminal complaint are that of an adult woman and one minor. The facts involving another minor were discussed with Mr. Barry to obtain exculpatory statements before trial. There is no mention of more than one minor in any public records available at that time.

4. During my transport from the courthouse to the Manhattan DA for this "reverse proffer" the lead Detective Mark Woods indicated to me that his office had nothing to do with the leak of information.

5. I believe the detective for the following reasons: (1) during the course of Federal Discovery and the release of transcripts in another case (People v. Nathaniel Jackson, Ind.# 4157-2011) it is revealed that the 17-year-old minor was working as both a confidential informant and a "prostitute" at the direction of the Manhattan DA. (2) It is also revealed that several NYPD officers were involved as "Johns" with the alleged prostitution-ring; and Police Officer Greg Smith was fired or resigned after sending Facebook messages requesting nude pictures of one of my alleged "underage prostitutes." For these reasons it is unlikely either office leaked this case to the media.

6. During confidential discussions with Mr. Barry he indicated that he was responsible for the dismissal of charges of several black gang-members who allegedly pimped out an Orthodox Jewish woman who he tracked down in Israel. This case was widely publicized on the news for several days.

7. There are likely other such instances if you subpoena 18-B records for his agency Ports & Files, then match those defendants with news articles. After obtaining records from the Assigned Counsel Plan it is revealed that Mr. Barry provided services for defendants linked with the following Docket #'s: 3762-2012; 0118-2013; 5596-2012 around the same time he worked for me.

8. Records of Mr. Barry's 18-B filings show that he began working for me on November 21, 2012 and stopped on the evening of December 3, 2012. Indicating in substance that he worked for only one objective. Mr. Hardy by his admitted "familiar[ity] with his work," knew that ultimate objective was to sell media stories, and collaterally his law practice would benefit from the free publicity.

9. As the record shows there are two cases in the media involving Mr. Hardy and possibly more that he has not mentioned. It is worth stating that there is clear motivation for Mr. Hardy given the proximity of the "Soccer Mom Madam" case being in the news.

This is a very serious issue as the AUSA to prosecute me, Amanda Kramer indicated directly that the media brought her attention to my case. While it may not be the only reason she took my case, it definitely is the cherry on top, given her involvement in prosecuting the pimp in the Lawrence Taylor underaged prostitution case. The U.S. Attorney indicated interest in my case on December 12, 2012 a week after the news articles.

I have also filed a complaint against Michael J. Barry of Ports & Files, Inc. with the NYS Department of State under File # 2014-1392. Please carefully investigate this matter as it involves serious ethical issues which are unfair to clients, especially indigents like myself.

Sincerely,

Royce Corley

Mr. Royce Corley, 349-12-01601
George R. Vierno Center
09-09 Hazen Street
East Elmhurst, New York 11370

Dear Mr. Corley:

As the records access officer, I am responding to your FOIL request dated November 3, 2012.

In response to your request for all documents involving Judge Bonnie G. Wittner and Judge Abraham L. Clott, section 45 of the Judiciary Law provides that all proceedings, complaints, correspondence and other records of the Commission are confidential with strictly limited exceptions. If a judge has been publicly disciplined, a public file is available. No public disciplinary action has been taken concerning the Judge Wittner or Judge Clott. Accordingly, pursuant to statute, no information or records from the Commission's files are available.

In response to your request for "all documents in regards to judges setting unreasonable, excessive or unconstitutional bail," I am enclosing the Commission determination dated March 30, 2004 in the Matter of Henry R. Bauer, who was removed, in part, for a pattern of excessive bail. The removal was upheld by the Court of Appeals. Matter of Bauer, 3 NY3d 158 (2004).

The Commission has no records available "in regards to judges altering stenographic minutes," as no public disciplinary actions have been taken for this conduct.

Royce Corley
November 13, 2012

In response to your request for "all documents of a statistical nature involving judges in New York county," I am enclosing a list of judges in New York County who have been publicly disciplined.

Any appeal of this decision may be directed to the Commission's Administrator, Robert H. Tembeckjian, who has been designated to review such appeals.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Ma E. Harrison", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Case #: [5490949]

The People of the State of New York

Affirmation

-against-

Defendant:

Docket/Indictment No:

Royce Corley

2012NY007628

I, Glenn F. Hardy an attorney duly admitted to the practice of law in the courts of the state of New York, do hereby affirm, under the penalty of perjury, that the following is true:

I have been assigned to represent the defendant, Royce Corley, pursuant to County Law 18b.

I performed the following work in the course of said representation:

Affirmation of OverCap

This matter went over cap due to the following reasons:

There were over 5000 pages of information provided by the DA that had to be reviewed
The defendant's father was too involved with the case, with constant phone calls and demands for copies of all papers
The defendant wanted constant jail visits
The defendant was called to testify at a related case.
The defendant was not interested in a plea and wanted a trial, thus it was necessary to review all the material, which took significant time.
The US attorney's office picked up the matter, but that too took time as there were several adjournments for the US to come in, and then a proffer session to ensure the defendant understood the consequences of his election to go to the Feds.
All the work was necessary to mount a zealous defense for the defendant.

Affirmation of OverBilling

Over billing on 6/13/12 was due to

1. significant number of case on during the day
2. trial preparation for an unrelated matter scheduled for trial on 6/14/12

Over billing for 12/1/12:

- 1/ The DA provided over 5000 pages of information that had to be sifted through as I prepared for trial, and it took several days, including 12/1/12.
